THE WINE LIST

PEOPLE ASK ME WHAT MAKES A WINE LIST GREAT.

To begin with, it should tell us stories;

• Stories about the winemakers, their agonies and the vintages;
stories about the varieties and the exciting terroirs in which they are planted.

A great wine list is a combination of diversity, excitement and adventure.

It should enable you to swiftly navigate through varieties, regions and diverse styles of wine.

It should also give you exciting alternatives at various price levels.

WINE IS FUN, ABOVE ALL;
THIS, TOGETHER WITH PRODUCERS WHO ARE TRUE TO THEIR LAND, GIVES THE BEST RESULT.

GREEK ISLANDS

Be it from the poor limestone soils of Cephalonia, the gigantic granitic rocks of Tinos, or the mountains of Crete and Evia Islands, these wines are made under extreme conditions and result from pure passion. The producers often hold on to hope as they expect very little from nature, proving that the world's greatest terroirs and wines are the children of 'poverty'.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Most consumers, at least at some point in their lives, have fallen in love with Sauvignon Blanc. Especially New Zealand's aromatic wines overflow with passion fruit and green pepper. However, it acquires its supreme expression in the Loire Valley and in the village of Sancerre, where some of the world's most exciting white wines are produced. Wines that reward ageing and still offer opportunities for the consumer looking for something classic outside Burgundy that doesn't cost as much as beluga caviar.
